PRESS RELEASE | Experience a moving portrait of an artist who never let the limitations of time stop him

Now the 2nd edition of H.C. Andersen's Biography – An insight into the fairy tale writer's own life.

Stauer Publishing is pleased to present the 2nd edition of H.C. Andersen's fascinating Biography, edited by author and philosopher, mag.art. Jens Staubrand, who has also selected the book's images and written comments on them.

This rare and personal depiction of the great Danish author's early life gives readers a unique insight into H.C. Andersen's childhood and youth, his longing for artistic recognition and his first encounters with the literary world.

H.C. Andersen's Biography provides a unique insight into the fairy tale writer's early life and journey towards becoming one of the world's most beloved authors. In his own words, H.C. Andersen takes the reader on a journey through his childhood in Odense, dreams and ambitions, and the challenges he had to overcome to make his name in the world of literature.

With this publication of Life, Stauer Publishing offers a valuable document that provides a deep and personal insight into H.C. Andersen as a person and artist.

The book makes it possible for contemporary readers to understand how H.C. Andersen's life and experiences became the inspiration for his fairy tales and stories, which have touched people all over the world.

Jens Staubrand's editing makes Life accessible to both new readers and those who are already familiar with H.C. Andersen's writings.
