PRESS RELEASE

New Publication: SØREN KIERKEGAARD – Abraham's Fear and Trembling, edited by Philosopher Jens Staubrand

Stauer Publishing now releases Søren Kierkegaard's philosophical main work Fear and Trembling in a new, edited edition by philosopher Jens Staubrand. The publication is titled Abraham's Fear and Trembling.

Søren Kierkegaard's Fear and Trembling, which was first published in 1843 under the pseudonym Johannes de Silentio, revolves around the biblical story of Abraham and the sacrifice of Isaac – a story Kierkegaard uses to unfold his groundbreaking thinking on the paradox of faith, the individual's relationship to God, and the contrast between the ethical and the religious.

In Jens Staubrand's edition, Kierkegaard's text is rendered in modern Danish and made accessible to new readers. The book's illustrations and accompanying commentary support and deepen the work.

The book is aimed at readers interested in philosophy, students, theologians, and anyone wishing to immerse themselves in one of Western thought's most radical works.
