PRESS RELEASE

New Book from Stauer Publishing: Marie Jensen – Philosophical Cakes – Søren Kierkegaard's Life and Work as Flavourful Experiences

Stauer Publishing proudly presents a truly unique and original book that blends philosophy and baking into a surprising and sensory experience. Philosophical Cakes – Søren Kierkegaard's Life and Work as Flavourful Experiences by Marie Jensen is an illustrated hardback where the thoughts, life, and central themes of philosopher Søren Kierkegaard are transformed into cakes.

The book features a wide range of unique cake recipes, each inspired by a concept, a text, a person, or an episode from Søren Kierkegaard's life.

Behind the recipes is cook Marie Jensen, and the book is edited by philosopher Jens Staubrand.

Examples of the thought-provoking and delicious cakes include:

Søren Kierkegaard Celebration Cake
The Individual's Simple Cake

Either/Or Cake
Don Juan's Seductive Cake
Regine Olsen Engagement Cake
The Absurd Cake
The Dizziness of Anxiety Cake
The Repetition Cake
In Vino Veritas Cake
Søren Kierkegaard Death Cake

With humour, seriousness, and a deep love for Søren Kierkegaard's life and writings, the book is an invitation to read with the palate and think with the taste buds.

The book is aimed at philosophy enthusiasts, baking lovers, and anyone seeking a new and sensory approach to one of Denmark's greatest thinkers.
