Februar 2025

Stauer Publishing publishes 2 new books that communicate two great Danish spiritual/intellectual figures in an accessible and systematic ABC format.

The 2 books are:

H.C. Andersen-ABC

An alphabetical journey into his life and work

Søren Kierkegaard-ABC

An alphabetical journey through his life and thinking

The idea of the 2 books is simple — and strong: To make two central authorships and worlds of thought clear and inspiring through alphabetical structure.

Each entry in the books functions as an independent gateway to persons, concepts, works, themes and historical contexts — suitable both for in-depth reading and for reference use. The 2 books address a broad audience of culturally interested readers, teachers, families and libraries and provide a comprehensive, pedagogical gateway to life, work and reception history.

The books unite communication, overview and cultural education and are well suited for mention as:

- a new form of literary and philosophical public education
- reference works in a modern, reader-friendly structure
- tools for teaching and for general cultural interest
